CANCELS TREASURY.

Strict Orders of Interest to Cigar and Tobacco Dealers.

Hon. Green B. Raum, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has issued to Collectors instructions which tell their own story. The communication reads as follows:

"Section 376, Revised Statutes, makes it the duty of every person who employs any stamp, but, as wrapper or envelope, of any kind of any kind containing tobacco or snuff, to destroy the stamp or stamps thereon.

"Section 3406, Revised Statutes, provides that whenever any stamp or stamps are used on cigars, cigarettes or cigarettes is emptied, it shall be the duty of the person in whose hands the same is, to destroy utterly the stamps thereon.

"The same section authorizes any revenue officer to destroy any emptied cigar box upon which a stamp is found.

"You are hereby directed to cause a thorough canvass of your district to be made to see that the sections above referred to are strictly complied with. You will commence the canvass at once, and you are directed to visit dealers in manufactured tobacco, examine carefully their stock to discover whether or not they have any stamps on cigars and cigarettes, and if they have, to take measures to see that this is done.

"It is not the wish of this office to institute proceedings, but to see that offenders are brought to justice. It is the duty of the revenue officer to see that stamps are not violated the law, but to see that stamps are not used on any kind of tobacco or snuff.

This work should be entered upon immediately and should be completed before the 15th proximo. You will report the result of the canvass to this office, giving the names of emptied tobacco packages and cigar boxes discovered upon which the stamps were not destroyed, and the dispositions of the same."

Another Good Fight.

According to the Pittsburgh Dispatch the sacred soil of West Virginia is again to be dog-fight. It says: "A match has been arranged for Jack, who defeated Pete at Columbia, and a large crowd of spectators are expected to attend. This time it is with Jack Rice's white brindle bull, a dog but known to the sporting fraternity, but not a good one. A forfeit of $25 has been put up, and a meeting will be had on Saturday evening to arrange terms. The stakes will likely be $500 a side and the place Colliery Station. An attempt will be made to fight Jack at 51 pounds. His last battle was at 54 pounds and he seemed then to be overtrained. The white brindle will be backed by his owner, Jack Rice, a glassblower who lives on Tenth street. Thomas J. Brown, on account of Mr. Kiley's continued illness, will take care of Jack's interests.

A FRUITFUL SEARCH

FOR DR. SCHUCHARDT'S TREASURE

In the Murdered Man's Late Residence—Wendel

Dickenschild at Liberty and the Bags of Silver

Still in the Bank—Suspicion of Fruitful Search Still Barred.

The hearing in the case of Wendel Dick-enschild, accused of stealing $7,800 in silver from the estate of the murdered Dr. Schuch-hardt, was continued yesterday by Squire Caldwell. The only witness examined was Judge G. L. Cramer, administrator of the estate, who corroborated the statement of Mr. Dickenschild, made the day before, that the latter had called on him on Monday, and told him that Dr. Schuchardt, the day before his death, had given him a sum of money, and that he had it in his trunk at the time he was killed. He did not get the impression that there was any large sum of money involved, and he told Dickenschild to ship the trunk to Cincinnati, as he had intended.

Squire Caldwell said that he could not in view of the evidence, discharge the man, but the prosecution attorneys having
